THE MANAGER

We couldn't have done any more in the second half at Everton last weekend, we were just unable to get the goal that I felt we deserved.

We didn't do a great deal wrong in the first half either, there wasn't much in it, but after the break we picked up the pace and it was completely one-way traffic.

We penned them in but we just didn't have any luck in front of goal despite having several good chances. It was just one of those days.

Sometimes you win games that you don't deserve to win and other times you get beaten when you don't deserve to lose.

We are still third in the Premier League and we have deserved to be there this year. The race for those Champions League places is certainly intensifying and we remain determined to finish the job we started.

Our other priority is the FA Cup and I was pleased with the character shown by the lads to come from a goal down against Stevenage to book our place in the quarter-finals.

We always knew it would be a hard game and the players deserve credit for seeing the job through.

Games against lower league opposition are always difficult because they want to prove they can play on the big stage. In nearly 30 years of management I have never had an easy one yet.

Unfortunately, we lost Michael Dawson to a bad injury early on, which means he is unlikely to be available again this season and that is a massive blow for everyone. We all wish him well in his recovery.

Today we welcome Bolton Wanderers to White Hart Lane for a fixture where a place at Wembley is at stake for the winners.

Nobody has an easy game against Bolton and they have an outstanding young manager in Owen Coyle. We know we will have to be at our best if we are to come through this and make the semi-finals.

You can't write off any of the eight sides left in the FA Cup. The competition is wide open this year. Whichever four teams make it through the quarter-finals, there is certainly not going to be an easy match for anyone when the draw for the semi-finals is made tomorrow afternoon.

We want to win this competition. It has been a long time since we won the FA Cup and this team is certainly capable of going all the way. If we can do that and secure Champions League football again then it will be a great season for us.

Enjoy the game.

Souleymane Coulibaly fires in a shot to test Seagulls' keeper Casper Ankergrén
Inset: Defender Bruno Uvini tussles for possession

SPURS XI ROCKED BY BRIGHTON

Our Spurs XI team started superbly against Brighton but ended up losing 4-1 in Tuesday's friendly at Spurs Lodge.

The lads pressed Brighton on the ball and continually won possession in the attacking third in the opening half-hour.

That led to a number of chances and Bongani Khumalo had already clipped the top of the crossbar from 16 yards when Alex Pritchard opened the scoring in fine style with 17 minutes on the clock.

Milos Veljkovic won the ball and it moved left to right through Nabil Bentaleb, Massimo Luongo and Souleymane Coulibaly to Pritchard, who cut inside two defenders before curling left-footed past Casper Ankergrén into the far corner.

Brighton levelled with their first serious attack when George Barker failed to connect with Torbjorn Adgstein's cross but Jake Caskey was there to finish for 1-1 after 32 minutes.

The visitors completed the turn around before the break when Caskey curled a beauty into the top corner from 25 yards.

The second half was a much more even affair and the Seagulls had more than their fair share of chances. Smith cleared off the line from Barker and Jonathan Miles acrobatically tipped over from Rodgers.

Pritchard shot just wide on the hour but

Brighton forged further ahead minutes later when Barker worked a yard of space and drilled low across Miles into the far corner.

Roland Bergkamp capitalised on a defensive mix-up to roll home the fourth goal 10 minutes from time.

Pritchard was fittingly involved in the final chance as he got to the right byline and found Coulibaly, who was denied at close range by Ankergrén.

Spurs XI: Miles, Smith, Khumalo, Uvini, Byrne; Luongo, Veljkovic (Gallifuoco 64), Pritchard, Munns, Bentaleb (Oduwa 64), Coulibaly. Substitute (not used): Granger.

CUP FEVER GRIPS BOXING RIVALS!

Posing with the famous FA Cup trophy is boxer and Bolton Wanderers fan Amir Khan, along with his next opponent Lamont Peterson wearing a Spurs shirt!

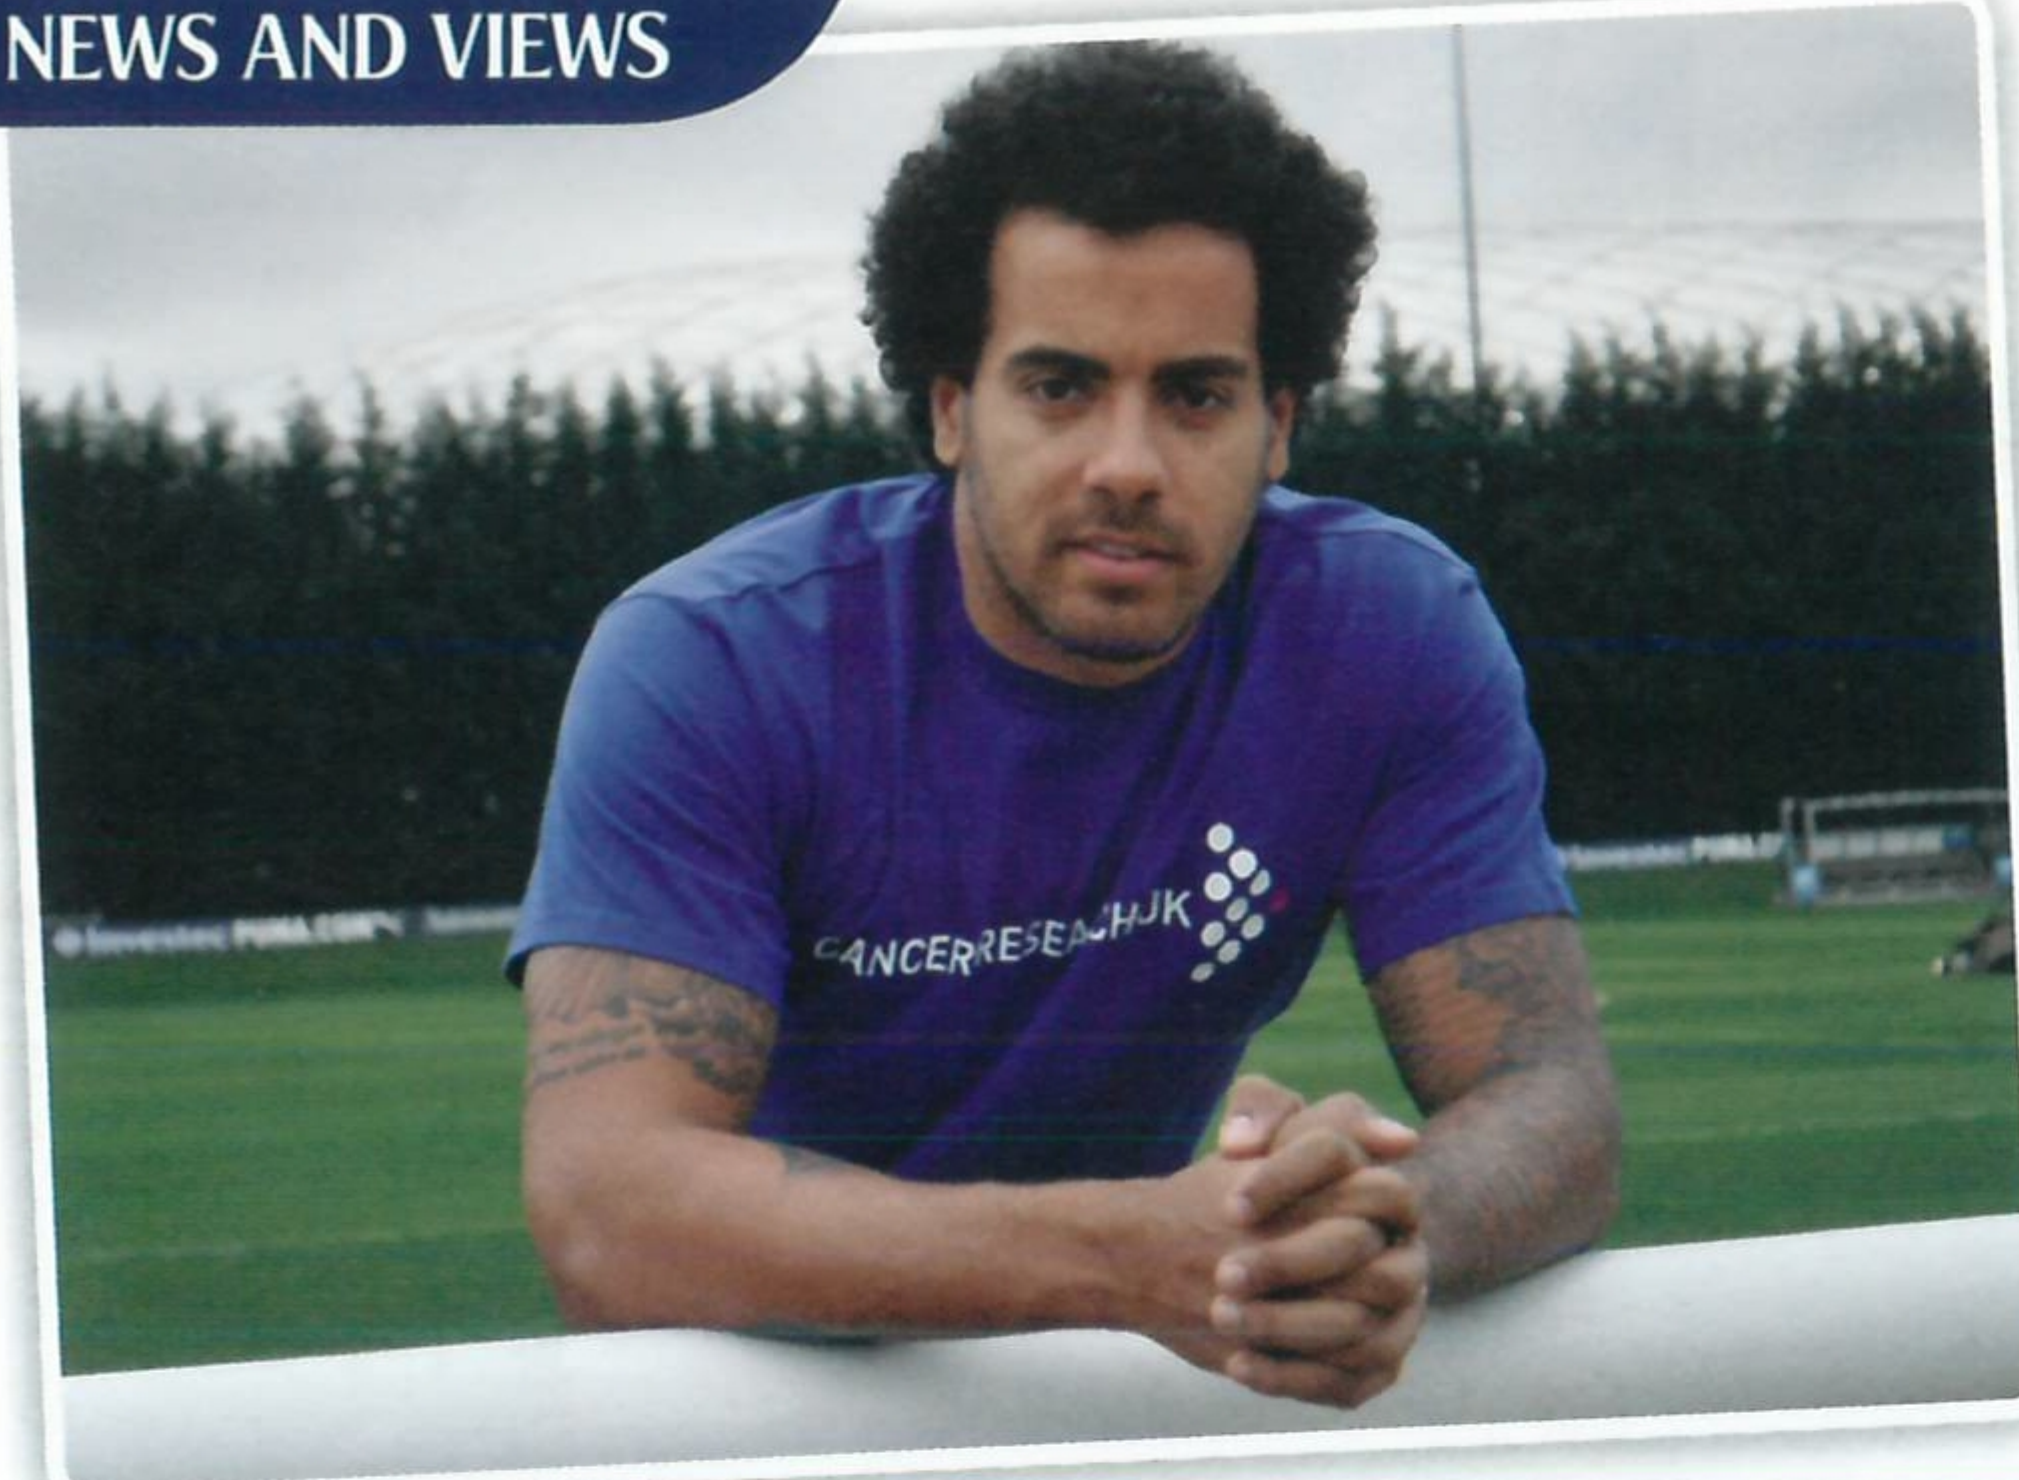

American fighter Peterson controversially beat Khan on points in Las Vegas in December but after the WBA ordered a rematch recently, the rivals came together this week for the first of many pre-fight press conferences.

And just to stoke up the rivalry, Peterson donned a Spurs shirt and Khan posed in his Bolton top ahead of this evening's FA Cup clash. Perhaps Peterson will become a Spurs fan if we win!

THE 'HUDDLEFRO' KEEPS GROWING!

Tom Huddlestone's 'Huddlefro' is taking shape as he continues to grow his hair for charity.

The midfielder revealed in October that he intended to grow his hair as he recovers from his ankle injury - and he won't stop until he scores his next goal!

Tom has committed himself to raising money for Cancer Research UK and is after your support.

He aims to raise £75,000 for a charity close to his heart and is hoping fans will help him reach his target.

You can donate at Tom's JustGiving page here at www.justgiving.com/huddlefro

Tom said: "I have lost family members to cancer so it is a charity I strongly believe in. Any way fans can help me raise money would be greatly appreciated."

CHARITY RUNNERS POP IN TO THE LANE

A group of runners taking part in the 92 Club Relay for the Always a Chance charity arrived at White Hart Lane last week.

On April 16, 2011, two passionate football fans James Kouzaris, 24, and James Cooper, 25, were tragically shot dead whilst on holiday in Sarasota, Florida, and Always A Chance has been established in their memory.

The charity works in the UK to help change the lives of young people at risk of being involved with violent crime and to provide support for victims of violence and their families.

The 92 Club Relay sees Always a Chance supporters taking part in a man powered relay to all 92 football league grounds in the UK, covering 2200 miles in 12 weeks.

LATEST INJURY UPDATES

Michael Dawson is expected to be out of action for between 10-12 weeks after scans revealed he suffered a ruptured ligament in his right ankle. The central defender picked up the injury in the first half of the FA Cup replay against Stevenage.

Meanwhile Heurelho Gomes underwent surgery on Tuesday on his left knee after a scan revealed a tear of his medial meniscus. Following consultation with a specialist, it is expected that the Brazil goalkeeper will return to training in four weeks.

LOAN WATCH

Jonathan Obika played his part again as Yeovil picked up another valuable point in League One on Tuesday night.

The striker was brought down on the edge of the box 30 minutes into the Glovers' match against Scunthorpe at Huish Park and Gavin Williams curled home the free-kick. Obika (below) also went close twice as the game ended 2-2.

In the Championship, Andros Townsend played 90 minutes as Birmingham suffered a 3-1 defeat at Leicester while Tom Carroll was an unused substitute as Derby toppled rivals Nottingham Forest 1-0.

In the Premier League, Steven Pienaar was back in the Everton team for the Merseyside derby but could do little as Liverpool ran out 3-0 winners thanks to a hat-trick from Steven Gerrard.

Finally, our young goalkeeper Jordan Archer impressed again as Bishop's Stortford secured an impressive 1-0 win at high-flying FC Halifax in Blue Square North.

In last weekend's action, Steven Caulker added Manchester City to the scalps taken by Swansea this season on Sunday.

The young defender, still only 20, was outstanding as the Swans toppled the title-chasers 1-0 at the Liberty Stadium.

Staying in the Premier League, Sebastien Bassong was back from injury as Wolves lost 2-0 at home to Blackburn, and Kyle Naughton played a full shift as Norwich drew 1-1 against Wigan at Carrow Road.

In the Championship, Harry Kane played for an hour as Millwall suffered a 3-1 loss at Forest, Carroll was substituted at half-time as Derby lost 2-1 at home to Watford, while Townsend played 90 minutes as Birmingham came from behind to draw at Coventry.

In League One, Obika set up Andrew Williams' winner for Yeovil at Oldham as the Glovers won 2-1.

REPLAY DATE

In the event of this evening's game ending in a draw, a replay has provisionally been scheduled for Tuesday, March 27, kick-off 8pm at The Reebok Stadium, but remains subject to rearrangement for live television coverage.

Having been drawn against Bolton in this round, it means one of us will reach the semi-finals on the weekend of April 14-15 and so our Premier League match against Wanderers, scheduled for Sunday, April 15, has been postponed. A new date will be announced in due course.

Meanwhile, the draw for the semi-finals of the FA Cup will take place tomorrow on ITV1 at approximately 6.05pm. The ball numbers are as follows:

- 1 Liverpool or Stoke City
- 2 Chelsea or Leicester City
- 3 Spurs or Bolton
- 4 Everton or Sunderland

LADIES UNLUCKY IN LEAGUE CUP

Spurs Ladies deserved more than a 2-2 draw against high-flying Colchester in their penultimate FA Women's Premier League Cup group match on Sunday.

The U's - top of Premier Division South and likely title-winners this season - needed a late equaliser to deny Karen Hills' team a chance of progressing to the quarter-finals of the competition.

The team flew out of the traps in the second half as Miranda Hall linked up well with Jenna Schillaci, zipped past the full-back and fired home across the goalkeeper into the far corner for 1-0.

Colchester responded quickly from a long ball that was not cleared but Spurs hit back again to lead 2-1 when Kirsten Thompson crossed, Sam Pittuck dummied and Wendy Martin crashed home.

However, the U's managed to find an equaliser in the final minutes leave the ladies deflated.

Nevertheless, manager Karen took great heart from the performance with the big one - the London FA Women's Cup Final - now just under a fortnight away.

"There were plenty of positives to come out of the game," said Karen.

"It gave me a chance to see a few girls that haven't been involved recently, they came in and did a great job.

"We now go to Watford on Thursday night for the last League Cup game with nothing to lose as we can't progress but the girls know that they are all still fighting for the chance to be selected for the London Cup Final on March 29!"

Spurs Ladies: Jo Ayre, Miranda Hall, Robyn Downie, Rhya Vyse, Vicky Elcome, Wendy Martin, Robin McEvoy, Derrie O'Halloran (Bianca Baptiste 60), Jenna Schillaci, Sam Pittuck, Kirsten Thompson (Nicola Cable 75).

THE STORY SO FAR

Ahead of today's FA Cup quarter-final, we look at how Bolton and ourselves have fared in the competition so far

Reaching the FA Cup semi-finals last season, Bolton Wanderers are no strangers to this stage of the competition under their Scottish manager Owen Coyle.

They were defeated 5-0 at Wembley by Stoke City last April and while they have bounced back in the competition to stand within 90 minutes of another trip to the famous stadium, their cup run has also provided ample respite from their endeavours in the Premier League.

Currently locked in a relegation battle, by their cup form you wouldn't know it as they continue to march on.

Here, we look back at how the Trotters and ourselves have each reached the quarter-finals of the FA Cup...

FA CUP THIRD ROUND JANUARY 7, 2012 TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR 3-0 CHELTENHAM TOWN

League 2 outfit Cheltenham met a Spurs team with the proverbial bit between its teeth in the third round. After a successful Christmas period that saw us reinforce our Champions League credentials for 2012-13, Jermain Defoe, Roman Pavlyuchenko and Giovani Dos Santos were all on the scoresheet to set us on our way in a competition we last won in 1991.
Team: Cudicini, Livermore, Dawson, Bassong, Rose, Lennon (Bostock), Pienaar, Kranjcar, Dos Santos, Defoe (Falque), Pavlyuchenko.

FA CUP THIRD ROUND JANUARY 7, 2012 MACCLESFIELD 2-2 BOLTON WANDERERS

After defeating Chelmsford City to earn the right to play Bolton, the Silkmen came within 13 minutes of a giant killing. Ivan Klasnic had put the Trotters ahead, but Macclesfield replied through Colin Daniel and Arnaud Mendy to go 2-1 ahead. It looked like staying that way before David Wheater's equaliser forced a replay.

Team: Bogdan, Riley, Knight, Wheater, Robinson, Eagles, Pratley (M Davies), Reo-Coker, Petrov, K Davies (Ngog), Klasnic.

FA CUP THIRD ROUND REPLAY JANUARY 17, 2012 BOLTON WANDERERS 2-0 MACCLESFIELD

After potentially slipping out of the competition by way of an upset, Bolton atoned for their errors in the replay at the Reebok with a far more accomplished display. Kevin Davies had put them ahead within a minute of kick-off and Martin Petrov added a second midway through the first half.

Team: Bogdan, Riley, Wheater, Boyata, Ricketts (Robinson), Sanli (O'Halloran), M Davies, Reo-Coker, Petrov, K Davies, Klasnic (Ngog).

FA CUP FOURTH ROUND JANUARY 27, 2012 WATFORD 0-1 TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR

Many a team has come unstuck at Vicarage Road in the FA Cup down the years, but we negotiated safe passage into the fifth round with a controlled, dominant display against the Hornets. In an untraditional Friday night kick-off in the cup, Rafael van der Vaart scored the vital goal just before the interval to book another trip against Hertfordshire opposition in the form of Stevenage.

Team: Cudicini, Walker, Dawson, Kaboul, Rose, Van der Vaart, Parker, Livermore, Modric (Lennon), Defoe (Pienaar), Adebayor (Pavlyuchenko).

Jake Livermore holds off the challenge of Cheltenham Town's Kaid Mohamed in round three.

FA CUP FOURTH ROUND

JANUARY 27, 2012

BOLTON WANDERERS 2-1 SWANSEA CITY

One of the Premier League's surprise packages, newly-promoted Swansea City have earned the support of many neutrals this term. Unfortunately for Brendan Rodgers' side, Bolton weren't so forthcoming in the fourth round, eliminating them 2-1. Luke Moore had put the visitors ahead before former Jack Darren Pratley equalised on half-time. Chris Eagles's strike 10 minutes after the break proved the winner.

Team: Bogdan, Riley, Boyata, Wheeler, Ricketts, Eagles (Tuncay), Pratley (Muamba), Reo-Coker, Petrov, M Davies, Ngog (K Davies)

FA CUP FIFTH ROUND

FEBRUARY 19, 2012

STEVENAGE 0-0 TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR

Ahead of our clash at the Lamex Stadium, Stevenage manager Gary Smith made calls for his players to give a 'good account of themselves against Premier League opposition'. Well, he got all that he wanted as his side held their own against us to earn a replay at White Hart Lane. They rode their luck at times, but a clean sheet proved ample reward for their efforts.

Team: Cudicini, Kaboul, Dawson, Nelsen, Rose (Lennon), Walker (Kranjcar), Parker, Livermore, Bale, Defoe, Saha.

Emmanuel Adebayor celebrates his goal against Stevenage with team mates Bolton's Sam Ricketts in action with Ashley Richards of Swansea City.

FA CUP ROUND UP

THEY HAVE HAD THEIR FAIR SHARE OF CUP SCARES THIS TERM, BUT BOLTON MADE LIGHT WORK OF MILLWALL IN THE LASHING RAIN AT THE DEN

FA CUP FIFTH ROUND REPLAY

MARCH 7, 2012

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR 3-1 STEVENAGE

Much of the talk had been of Stevenage looking to cause a major upset in our replay at the Lane and the League 2 side almost got their wish. They took the lead after just four minutes when Joel Byrom scored from the penalty spot to put then in dreamland, but a Jermain Defoe brace and a penalty of our own from Emmanuel Adebayor was enough to see off the Boro.

Team: Cudicini, Kaboul, Dawson (Walker), Nelsen, Rose, Lennon (Adebayor), Kranjcar (Livermore), Parker, Bale, Van der Vaart, Defoe .

FA CUP FIFTH ROUND

MILLWALL 0-2 BOLTON WANDERERS

They have had their fair share of cup scares this term, but Bolton made light work of Millwall in the lashing rain at The Den. It took just four minutes for loan star Ryo Miyaichi to open the scoring as he expertly curled the ball beyond Steve Mildenhall in goal for the Lions, before David Ngog made sure of the result with his strike in the second half.

Team: Bogdan, Steinsson, Ream, Wheeler, Ricketts, Davies (Pratley), Muamba, Reo-Coker, Miyaichi (Eagles), Ngog, Tuncay.

OLYMPIC SPIRIT

As the countdown to London 2012 continues, Andy Greeves talks to Olympic and Paralympic competitors past and present who not only share a burning desire for medal success but a passion for Tottenham Hotspur Football Club.

Marathon and 200m runner Richard Whitehead says one of the main reasons he is involved in sport is to "inspire people from all walks of life" and to prove that "with enough desire and determination, any obstacle can be overcome."

Whitehead is living proof of just what can be achieved when you put your mind to it. Despite the obvious challenges he has faced as a congenital double amputee, the Paralympian has already accomplished a lifetime of sporting achievements in just eight years. In Rome in 2009, he became the first ever leg amputee to break the three hour barrier for the marathon with a time of two hours 56:45. A year later he broke his own world record for the marathon in Chicago with a time of two hours 42:52 and also set a world record in the half marathon in Reading (one hour 14:59).

Last year he found out that would not be able to compete in the 2012 Paralympic Marathon and started to run the 200m instead in order to qualify for the Games. He is already world champion in that sport and holds a third world record currently for a time of 25.69 seconds set in the 200m at a Diamond League meeting in Crystal Palace in August last year.

"I started running in 2004 and ran the New York Marathon for Macmillan Cancer Research and I managed to raise over £8,000 for them," says Whitehead, explaining his route into sport. "I've run 24 marathons to date all over the world, including Africa, Asia, Europe and the Middle East and I currently hold three world records. I would have to say though, that very first marathon I ran ranks as my greatest sporting achievement."

"I ACTUALLY TAUGHT JERMAINE'S MUM TO SWIM AND HAVE MET HIM A NUMBER OF TIMES SINCE. HE'S A LOVELY GUY AND A GREAT FOOTBALLER."

As if Whitehead's CV wasn't long enough already, he can also add competing in a Winter Paralympics to the list. In 2006, he travelled to Turin as part of Great Britain's ice sledge hockey team which finished seventh at the Games.

"It gave me a flavour of what the Olympics is all about, what it's like being around the Olympic Village and so on," he says. "It was definitely good experience to take to London 2012."

Nottingham-born Whitehead is also a lifelong Tottenham Hotspur supporter and whenever he gets some spare time in his hectic schedule, he enjoys trips to White Hart Lane or watching our matches on TV.

"My first ever visit to a Spurs game was against Aston Villa in the early 1980s and I've been following the club ever since," says Richard. "Coming from Nottingham, I have seen a fair few Spurs games at Nottingham Forest and Notts County and across the Midlands as a whole. In fact, I've probably been to more away games than I have home ones."

Unsurprisingly given where he is from, Whitehead says his football highlight to date is our 1991 FA Cup Final victory against Forest.

"It capped a really memorable season with the likes of Gary Lineker and Paul Gascoigne on top form for us and of course it was sweet to get victory against Forest, who many of my friends support," he smiles. "The UEFA Cup victory in 1984 was pretty special too and I can still remember watching that final on TV. More recently the games in the Champions League were fantastic and like every other Spurs fan, I'm hoping for another run in the competition next season."

RICHARD WHITEHEAD

RICHARD WHITEHEAD - PARALYMPIC HISTORY 2006 - TURIN

Whitehead's only experience of the Paralympics so far actually came at the 2006 Winter Games when he was part of a 12 man squad that competed in the ice sledge hockey event. Great Britain finished seventh at the Games, losing to both Norway and Canada in the group stage, which denied the team a chance to compete in the medal round.

Whitehead also talks fondly about a day he was a guest of the club prior to the Winter Paralympics in 2006, when he toured White Hart Lane and met the players.

"A familiar face that day was Jermaine Jenas," he smiles. "I actually taught Jermaine's mum to swim and have met him a number of times since. He's a lovely guy and a great footballer."

Whitehead lists Gary Lineker, Paul Gascoigne, Clive Allen, Rafael van der Vaart and Gareth Bale along with Jermaine as some of his favourite players past and present. His biggest sporting inspiration however is someone from outside the world of football - Canadian runner Terry Fox.

"Fox ran across his home country to raise funds for cancer research," explains Whitehead. "He was an amputee who ran for 143 days in a row before his cancer eventually forced him to stop, but I remember as a youngster thinking 'what a fantastic man'. He is the biggest inspiration to me in terms of what I do today."

Given Whitehead's form, he is a strong favourite with many to take Gold in the 200m at the Paralympic Games this summer. But despite all his achievements to date, the runner is playing down talk of medals in the run-up to the Paralympics.

"You have certain targets in professional sport and it would be great to win a medal at 2012," he says. "But what I'm focusing on currently is getting to that start line at the Games in the best possible mental and physical shape to do well. That's what I'm thinking about right now, not medals. We'll see how everything goes."

OTHER DEFINING MOMENTS - SEASON 1994-95

On two successive afternoons in August, 1994, then-manager Ossie Ardiles brought two major stars of the summer's World Cup to White Hart Lane. Romanian winger Ilie Dumitrescu signed on August 3, 1994, for a club record fee at the time of £2.6m while Jurgen Klinsmann arrived a day later from Monaco in a £2m deal.

Ardiles' final match in charge of Spurs was a 3-1 victory against West Ham United on October 29, 1994.

Our quest for glory in the FA Cup ultimately ended in disappointment as Everton beat us 4-1 in a semi-final held at Elland Road.

KLINSMANN'S A QUARTER-FINAL HERO

As part of a regular series, Andy Greeves talks to ex-Spurs players and managers about defining moments of seasons past. Today, former defender Dean Austin looks back on a memorable victory over Liverpool in the quarter-finals of the FA Cup in 1995.

Having gone from starting out the 1994-95 season not even entered to play in that campaign's FA Cup to reinstatement in to the competition in December, 1994, and subsequent progression to the quarter-finals by March, 1995, there were many who believed that it was our destiny to win the famous old trophy that year.

Add to that some of the incredible results we had achieved en-route to our quarter-final showdown with Liverpool - including a 4-1 victory over Sunderland at Roker Park in the fourth round and a 6-2 fifth round replay triumph at Southampton, having been 2-0 down. It was easy to see why our supporters and the media alike thought our 'name was on the cup'.

"We'd obviously been banned from the competition at the start of the season but when we got back into the tournament, we went on a great run," recalls Dean Austin, who was in our starting line-up at Anfield on March 11, 1995. "I think the players themselves believed that it could be our year. We had a quality side and a real togetherness among the squad."

With the likes of Nick Barmby, Darren Anderton, Teddy Sheringham and Jurgen Klinsmann in our ranks, there was no shortage of plaudits for our attacking style of play throughout the 1994-95 season. Following the arrival of Gerry Francis as manager on November 10, 1994, we were matching flair with a run of great results too and had lost just three games under the new boss prior to the Liverpool cup tie.

"When Gerry Francis arrived that season, we became a much better side defensively," says Austin. "Our qualities from an attacking sense had never been in doubt, but he got us to function more as a team and we made the forwards' job easier by conceding less goals."

The excitement at Anfield prior to the quarter final tie was tangible and 5,500 travelling fans from North London helped create a real carnival atmosphere inside the stadium. Despite being a vitally important match for both sides, it was a surprisingly open first 30 minutes with chances at either end. Liverpool looked time and again to Mark Walters on their left to create an opening for front men Robbie Fowler and Ian Rush, but Austin was doing a good job at right back preventing that.

However, the one occasion Walters was given space in the first half proved costly. His deep cross was met by the head of Fowler on 38 minutes to put the home side in front.

"We went to Anfield as the underdogs and Liverpool maybe got off to the brighter start," remembers Dean. "But when Robbie Fowler gave Liverpool the lead, there wasn't any panic among the players. We just remembered that we had some great players of our own."

It was a concise attacking move just six minutes later that saw us equalise. David Howells played a glorious through ball from the halfway line into the path of the on-running Klinsmann. The German turned his two markers before rolling the ball to Sheringham who, with pin-point accuracy, curled his shot into the top left hand corner of David James' goal.

"Teddy's equaliser was absolutely sublime," smiles Austin. "There was the feeling there and then that we were going to go on and win the game. I think everyone in the side believed that."

Judging by the volume from the away end, our fans shared the players' optimism going into half time.

The second half proved to be a much more cagey affair. Walters had Liverpool's best effort, seeing his long range shot deflect narrowly wide of Ian Walker's right hand post. Sheringham meanwhile got in between Neil Ruddock and John Scales in the Reds' central defence to angle a header with inches wide of the upright.

Then, just as the game seemed set for a White Hart Lane replay, Anderton directed a loose ball to Sheringham inside the penalty area who, in turn, flicked it to Klinsmann. The summer signing from Monaco ran at Liverpool's goal and casually slotted the ball into the back of the net with just two minutes of time remaining.

"The way Klinsmann took that chance in the last few minutes speaks volumes about him as an individual and a player," comments Austin. "He was a very calm and collected chap who just didn't seem to feel pressure. He had very high standards that he set for himself and expected others to follow. I think that was a good influence on us all. He was a real world star and one who I feel privileged to have played with."

The final whistle was greeted with a huge cheer from the Spurs faithful and Liverpool's supporters sportingly applauded our players from the field. Such had been the emotion of the afternoon, Klinsmann could even be seen shedding a tear as he walked off the Anfield pitch.

SEASON REVIEW

THUMPING QPR 4-0 at Loftus Road heralded a bright start to the campaign for the Trotters, although it's not all gone to plan in the league since then. At least last weekend's headline-grabbing success against Rangers in the return match at the Reebok Stadium lifted Bolton out of the Premier League's bottom three, hurdling the Hoops in the process. Darren Pratley and sub Ivan Klasnic grabbed the vital goals but it was the goal that wasn't given that was all over the media. Clint Hill's header was clawed away by Adam Bogdan even though the ball appeared to have crossed the line. Today's game gives Bolton a break from league duties and the match marks Bolton's second successive FA Cup quarter-final.

MANAGER

OPPOSITION

OWEN COYLE

ALTHOUGH he cut his managerial teeth in the SPL with Falkirk and St Johnstone it was Owen Coyle's two-year stint at Burnley that caught the attention of the English football fraternity. He arrived in the Turf Moor hot seat in November 2007, steering the team up the table and winning promotion to the Premier League the following season playing a brand of football not usually associated with the Championship. During his tenureship Coyle took Burnley to the Carling Cup semi-final in 2009, before succumbing to us over two legs.

Coyle joined Bolton in January, 2010, guiding the Trotters away from the relegation places while gradually changing the club's outlook. He oversaw a charge to the FA Cup semi-finals in 2010-11 that was halted by Stoke, and has masterminded Bolton's run to this season's quarter-finals by seeing off Macclesfield, Swansea and Millwall. Last weekend's 2-1 victory over QPR brought Coyle and his squad some respite in the league; the three points gained took the Trotters out of the relegation places.

JUSSI JAASKELAINEN

IN the modern era testimonial games are rare, but the Finnish shot-stopper enjoyed his special match in 2009. With 15 years service, Jussi is well past the required decade's service to qualify. Indeed, he's well on the way to testimonial number two.

1946 – 1960

The late, great Nat Lofthouse was a legendary figure for Bolton and England. A strike rate of 30 goals in just 33 international appearances marks him out as something special. But he devoted himself to his hometown club.

Nat Lofthouse played more than 500 times for the Trotters, scoring 285 goals, before injury curtailed his career at the age of 33. In that time he captained Bolton to two FA Cup finals. The first, in 1953, became known as the Stanley Matthews final after the winger inspired Lancashire rivals Blackpool to a 4-3 comeback win after Lofthouse had put his side a goal up after only 75 seconds.

However, five years later Lofthouse was on the mark twice to see off Manchester United and lift the famous trophy at Wembley. Bolton haven't reached the final since then.

After retiring he became assistant trainer at Burnden Park. It was the first of many roles at the club, including chief coach, caretaker manager, manager, chief scout, executive manager and club president, a position he held until he passed away, aged 85, in January 2011.

RAFA'S DREAMING OF GLORY

Rafael van der Vaart goes into this evening's FA Cup quarter-final against Bolton insisting: "Medals mean everything."

Victory over Bolton would mean a first visit to Wembley for the Dutch star having missed Holland's recent friendly win against England.

More importantly, it would be a step nearer the FA Cup Final – and that trophy everyone is longing for at Spurs.

"It's important to the whole club," said Rafa. "Winning medals and trophies is the most important thing for a player and you need a little bit of luck to do it."

"Of course you'd love to win league titles and the Champions League, but the FA Cup is also good, every title counts."

"It would mean the world to win the FA Cup. As a club and as a player you want to win titles, you want to win something and this competition is fantastic."

"I'm not from England, but when I was young I always used to watch the FA Cup Final, it's a big day and it would be a dream to play in that game."

Despite his long and successful career both domestically and on the international stage, Rafa has yet to experience the delights of playing at Wembley Stadium.

He picked up an ankle injury at Arsenal and had to withdraw from Holland's friendly against England – captained by his team-mate Scott Parker – on February 29.

Now he's a win away from fulfilling one of his footballing dreams, with Bolton standing between us and a place in the last four at the famous venue.

"Wembley is a special stadium and because I missed the friendly against England I've never played there," said Rafa.

"It's always difficult in the FA Cup, but we play at home against Bolton so we'll be strong and we have a good chance of making the semi-finals and playing at Wembley."

Rafa insisted our 3-0 victory in the Premier League against the Trotters in December will mean nothing this evening.

"It won't make a difference," he said. "It's a separate game and we have to win, we don't want a replay."

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY AT TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR

Tottenham Hotspur Foundation celebrated International Women's Day last Thursday with a range of sports activities and workshops for girls and women of all ages.

Primary schools from the local area visited White Hart Lane to learn about inspirational female athletes, while female staff from Tottenham Hotspur Foundation also visited Northumberland Park School to give 40 Year 7 girls a netball masterclass with England international player Sasha Corbin.

Sasha led the session, after which there was an opportunity for the girls to ask questions on her success as a top level athlete. She said: "All women are an inspiration, from music to sport to my Mum, particularly women who have accomplished what they set out to achieve. International Women's Day is a fantastic opportunity to inspire all women, but especially younger women, which is why I was so pleased to be invited to get involved with a netball session at the school."

The day ended with a Body Combat class for female staff at Tottenham Hotspur alongside participants from Think Fit, a sports and physical activity project aimed at women in deprived communities.

Think Fit sessions have been welcoming International Women's Day across Barnet, Enfield, Haringey and Waltham Forest by offering fun, free or affordable sessions with goodies and healthy lifestyle advice being given out.

The Foundation celebrated International Women's Day all last week with a range of opportunities for women to be involved in, culminating in a female only five-a-side football tournament held at Wadham Lodge Sports Ground on the Friday evening.

FOUNDATION PRODUCES EMPLOYABLE GRADUATES

This May, Tottenham Hotspur Foundation will see the first of its students graduate from the FdA Applied Sport and Community Development programme, the first Degree to be delivered by a professional football club.

For two years, the students have studied and worked within an elite environment, gaining experiences specific to the industry they are looking to gain employment in.

Dan Slaughter will be one of those graduating, having taken the opportunity to return to education and improve on his existing coaching qualifications. Throughout the two years, Dan has focused on his passion of creating football opportunities for those with learning disabilities, through raising awareness and encouraging volunteering amongst members of his course. To date, he has been involved in supporting 25 football teams across London and the South East.

Dan has thoroughly enjoyed learning new skills and, through the degree course, has gained a deeper understanding of sports marketing and how he can improve sporting activities for those with disabilities. On completion of his degree with the Foundation, he will complete a top-up year to gain a BA (Hons) in Sport and Community Development at Middlesex University.

The success of the FdA in Applied

Sport and Community Development has resulted in the launch of our second Foundation Degree in Applied Sport Hospitality and Nutrition, available on a full or part-time basis.

The courses offered by the Foundation give a unique opportunity to study and work in the sports industry, with both practical and theoretical elements providing students with key skills needed to gain employment.

If you are interested in the courses or wish to find out more information on the Foundation Degrees visit www.tottenhamhotspur.com/foundation or contact foundation.degrees@tottenhamhotspur.com

PROGRAMMES FROM THE PAST

We continue our regular feature where we look back on games with our latest opposition through our programme archive. Today John Fennelly reflects on season 1934-35, a campaign that saw Spurs and Bolton meet in an epic FA Cup fifth round clash.

Our legendary forwards Willie Evans and George Hunt certainly carried the side in season 1934-35 when the wheels came off manager Percy Smith's short but eventful tenure in charge at White Hart Lane.

Smith, who had twice won the Championship as a player with Blackburn Rovers, took over here in January, 1930, with the side struggling at the wrong end of the old Second Division.

Under his direction, we rallied to finish in mid table and, after just missing out on promotion in third place the following season and a bit of an average 1931-32 season, Smith did it in 1933 when we gained promotion, a point behind table-topping Stoke City.

Smith had built a team nicknamed 'The Greyhounds' because of their power and pace with Evans and Hunt to the fore alongside Willie's Welsh international team mate Taffy O'Callaghan.

We finished third in the division in our first term back in the top flight but it all fell apart the next season when we concluded an injury-hit season marooned at the bottom of the table. Smith had walked out before we'd even finished our fixture list!

England international Hunt was probably Smith's best signing and illustrated that maybe the Spurs owners at the time should have had more confidence in their manager. But they regularly refused to allow him to buy the players he wanted on the transfer market yet, at times, purchased players themselves without reference to Smith!

Often the first he would know about additions to his squad would be when he read about it in the newspapers so it is understandable why, when relegation became certain, that he should go. Was he pushed or did he jump? Either way, it was a pretty untenable situation with clear mistrust on both sides.

It would all come to a head in that forgettable 1934-35 challenge, a season that saw 12 league debutants in our colours and, at one stage, the side endured a run of 16 league games without a win. By the April we were down – and Smith was out.

But some of the gloom was lifted by an FA Cup run that saw us eclipse Manchester City and Newcastle United before drawing Second Division high-flyers Bolton Wanderers in the fifth round.

The Saturday game here ended 1-1 with Evans our goalscorer and Jack Atkinson on target for Wanderers. The tie resumed in pouring rain at Burnden Park on the following Wednesday but even extra time on a terrible pitch could not separate the sides so after another 1-1 draw – Hunt for Spurs and Ray Westwood for Bolton, we reconvened in more mud at Villa Park for a second replay.

Unfortunately we were missing both the injured Hunt - who would later play for Bolton - and Evans for that Aston encounter and, without their proven impact, we battled gamely but totally lacked finishing power.

The Trotters were ahead by the third minute through Westwood and George Walton added number two midway through the second-half as we lost 2-0.

WEAKENED 'SPURS KNOCKED OUT OF CUP

Chances Missed After Bolton's Early Opening Goal

By FRANK COLES

BOLTON WANDERERS ..... 2 TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR ..... 0

AFTER five hours of strenuous struggling, mostly in a sea of mud, Bolton have knocked the 'Spurs out of the Cup and qualified to meet Everton, at Goodison Park, in the Sixth Round next Saturday. Yesterday's second replay, on Aston Villa's ground, lacked much of the tense drama of last week's match at Bolton. Nor was the football as good to watch. But the Wanderers were value for their 2-0 win. Before a ball was kicked I think nine people out of 10 had made up their minds that the 'Spurs would be beaten. It would

REVISED CUP DRAW

The revised draw for the sixth round of the F.A. Cup (ties to be played next Saturday) is:

Everton v. Bolton Wanderers
Burnley v. Birmingham
Sheffield Wed. v. Arsenal
W.B. Albion v. Preston N.E.

have been an astonishing feat if they had triumphed without the help of George Hunt and Willie Evans in attack.

The 'Spurs fought with fine courage, and had enough chances to have warded off defeat, but the absence of their two match-winning forwards was a fatal handicap.

In defence they were splendid. It was the unfamiliar-looking attack that let them down. The left wing was glaringly weak. Hedley, an unexpected choice as deputy for Willie Evans, found the occasion too big for him and never struck his normal game. And, as so often happens, he seemed to get more of the ball than any other Tottenham forward.

O'CALLAGHAN OFF FORM

As Hedley has had a very limited experience of first-class football it would be unfair to blame him. But I was surprised at the poor form of O'Callaghan, his partner. He scarcely ever made the correct pass.

In the centre Douglas Hunt tried desperately hard. He had little or no chance, however, against Atkinson, a tall centre-half who ever, against Atkinson, a tall centre-half who so far as I remember, went through the game without making a mistake. The best of the 'Spurs forwards was Hall, but it was a lopsided attack definitely lacking in class.

Here, indeed, was the marked difference between the teams. Bolton brought in Walton a reserve centre-forward, in place of Milsom, and he did really well between those brilliant inside wing men, Westwood and Eastham.

In spite of the mud, this Bolton attack moved in midfield with method and understanding. I am afraid, however, that they will not carry the club into the semi-final at Everton's expense. In the two replays with the 'Spurs the same fault has been revealed—first-class approach work ruined by indifferent finishing.

The Wanderers' forwards are supported by one of the soundest half-back lines in the country. I have referred to Atkinson's dominance over Hunt. On his right Goslin played a rare spoiling game, and I rated him the best wing half-back on the field.

The 'Spurs, also, were finely served by their middle line. Howe's sense of position had a tremendous lot to do with the frequent break-down of menacing Bolton raids, and Alford gave a remarkable display of pluck and stamina. He was wise in taking the ball up to his forwards, and, like Channell, who has developed into an exceptional right back, he was very unlucky to be on the losing side.

BLOW TO THE 'SPURS

It was a blow to the 'Spurs when the Wanderers took the lead at the third minute. A long, swinging cross-field pass by G. Taylor went on Whatley's blind side to the feet of G. T. Taylor.

Westwood collected the winger's centre and drove the ball hard against the left post. The 'Spurs goalkeeper made a gallant but unsuccessful attempt to clutch the rebound before it cannoned back to Westwood. The Bolton man made no mistake this time. "marathon"

So, for the first time since this "marathon" Cup-tie began the Wanderers were ahead. They should have lost the advantage long before the interval, but the 'Spurs missed some golden chances.

First Hedley was let through by Smith, and, not more than four yards out, he had the option of shooting or passing back to Hunt, who was unmarked. Hedley chose to pass, but the ball never reached Hunt; in his anxiety the 'Spurs reserve winger kicked into the mud and the opportunity had vanished.

ANOTHER NARROW ESCAPE

Then the Bolton goal had an even closer call. O'Callaghan charged the ball out of the goalkeeper's hands, but Hunt, who was only a yard away, lost his balance when the score looked a certainty.

Bolton's second goal, which meant farewell to the 'Spurs' Cup hopes, came midway through the second half. Eastham found G. T. Taylor with a long through pass, and the winger wound up a lightning run with a fiendish drive.

Taylor, who had advanced some yards, made a great attempt to save. While on ground, however, he lost the ball, and was promptly shot through.

After that nothing mattered very much. Two leg-weary teams dragged their way through the mud. The 'Spurs nearly saw when Hedley headed against the crossbar it was not their day. The final whistle had been sweet music to the players.

The 'Spurs are out of the Cup, but they have this solid financial consolation: their five matches in the competition have produced £20,000 in gate-money.

BOLTON WANDERERS—Jones; Smith, Channell; Atkinson, Taylor (G.); Taylor (G. T.); Eastham, Walton, Westwood, Cook.
TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR—Taylor; Channell; Whatley; Day, Howe, Ashford; McCormick, Hall (A.); Hunt (D.); O'Callaghan, Hedley.

"THEY HAVE A BRILLIANT TRIO OF INSIDE-FORWARDS IN MILSOM, WESTWOOD AND EASTHAM. THEY HAVE FREQUENTLY BEEN DESCRIBED AS ONE OF THE FINEST COMBINATIONS IN THE LEAGUE."

"They have a brilliant trio of inside-forwards in Milsom, Westwood and Eastham. They have frequently been described as one of the finest combinations in the League."

Another interesting aspect of the game – apart from the 70,347 gate – was the fact that we wore blue and white hooped shirts and Bolton played in red. As the programme explained:

"The colours of Bolton and ourselves are similar. At one time when this happened the visiting side had to change, but it was represented to the Football Association that it was a big disadvantage to be drawn away in the Cup, and that a further handicap should not be placed on visitors by compelling them to play in strange colours while a home club retained their own.

"The FA met the situation by deciding that where the colours are similar both must change. That explains why the Spurs this afternoon appear in blue and white hoops jerseys and blue knickers and Bolton in scarlet jerseys and white knickers. There cannot be any possible confusion with such distinctive colours."

Not only did Bolton knock us out after that marathon of games – but they also went on to take our First Division place. We would not return until 1950 when Arthur Rowe built a Spurs team that would blow like a storm through the English game.

The programme for the first meeting at the Lane was our standard pink four-pager at the time and featured a cartoon that showed our own long-serving utility man Les Howe plus Bolton trio George Eastham, Jack Milsom and Westwood.

Inside, the contents consisted mainly of the possible line-ups plus stats but the Editor also paid a warm tribute to our visitors thus:

"Bolton Wanderers...the most successful post-war Cup fighters in the country. There cannot be any dispute as to that statement.

"Three times Bolton have made their appearance at Wembley and thrice they won. That is a magnificent record. It argues consistent brilliance and determination.

"There is no doubt that Bolton are the finest side in the Second Division. There is skill in abundance, determination in plenty and team work of a high order in their efforts on the field.

"IT'S GOING TO BE A TOUGH GAME AGAINST BOLTON, THEY ALWAYS MAKE IT DIFFICULT FOR TEAMS...EVEN THOUGH THEY MIGHT NOT BE HAVING THE BEST SEASON IN THE LEAGUE"

Jermain Defoe has put all thoughts of Wembley to the back of his mind tonight – but admits he is desperate to return to the national stadium and right the wrongs of our last outing there.

A Wembley semi-final awaits the winners of this evening's FA Cup sixth round tie against Bolton Wanderers and that incentive alone will ensure a mouth-watering and entertaining game at the Lane.

Our England striker has made more appearances and scored more goals in the FA Cup than any other member of our current squad – having netted 15 times in 27 matches, including two in our fifth round replay win over Stevenage here 10 days ago.

And Defoe is hoping to add to that tally this evening, with two more goals needed to earn his place in our list of top 10 all-time greatest goalscorers. Naturally the focus is fully concentrated on beating Owen Coyle's side tonight and Jermain is hoping to achieve that in order to make amends for our last FA Cup semi at Wembley, when we lost so disappointingly to Portsmouth in April, 2010.

"It's going to be a tough game against Bolton, they always make it difficult for teams and even though they might not be having the best season in the league, that goes out of the window tonight because the FA Cup brings out the best in teams," said JD, who has 15 goals to his name in all competitions this season.

"They've got good, strong players who always give us a good game. We beat them quite convincingly in the league here earlier in the season, but they had a player sent off that day so it's difficult to use that as a marker for tonight.

"All we have to do is play our own football and concentrate on our own performance," he added. "It's down to us as players to do our jobs and I'm confident if we can do that, then we can make it to Wembley again."

Victory over the Trotters would see us back at the national stadium for the fourth time in five years, having reached the League Cup Final twice and then the aforementioned FA Cup semi with Pompey.

Jermain was substituted after just an hour in that game against his former club, as we lost 2-0 in extra time and he feels an appearance at Wembley would give everyone at the club a huge boost as well as giving us the chance to put right that Portsmouth result.

"It's a massive game this evening because whoever wins gets to play at Wembley and that's what we want," he said. "It would lift the whole place after our recent results in the league and give us a real boost ahead of Wednesday's game against Stoke here.

"The players, staff and fans all want that day out at Wembley and of course we want to go on and win the competition. It's been a long time since this club last won the FA Cup, back in 1991, and with our great history in the tournament, it's about time we won it again.

"We had an opportunity a couple of years ago, but we let ourselves down against Portsmouth. We just didn't play well on the day and it was a huge setback. That's why we are so determined to overcome Bolton's challenge and then, hopefully, win the semi as well."

Jermain's brace in our 3-1 win replay win against League Two Stevenage last Wednesday were his 115th and 116th goals for the club, leaving him one short of Les Bennett, who netted 117 times in our colours and currently occupies 10th place in the all-time goalscorers list. Defoe draws level with one more strike, while two will give him his outright place in the top 10.

"People look at matches like ours against Stevenage and just expect us to win easily, but we had to be professional," said Jermain. "The manager picked a strong team and we approached it like any league game.

"Stevenage made it difficult for us, they got the penalty early on, but we didn't panic at all, we felt the goals would come eventually. Obviously it was important to get the equaliser before half-time and with the tempo we played, I think they struggled a bit in the second half and we got the goals and the win.

"From a personal point of view, it was great to add another couple to my total. I've been at this club a number of years now and it's been fantastic, I've had some great memories and scored lots of goals.

"Of course, I hope I can get two more and make it into the top 10 alongside some of the greatest players ever to have played for Spurs. But it would be better if we can finish in the top four in the league and win the FA Cup. It's about the team first and foremost, we want to win trophies, and if I score goals along the way, then that's a bonus really."

While we take a break from our Premier League campaign tonight, we're quickly back in the saddle on Wednesday for the visit of Stoke City as we look to arrest a run of three straight league defeats against Arsenal, Manchester United and Everton.

It has certainly been a tough run of fixtures but Jermain insists that, despite the results, performances haven't been too bad and that we probably deserved a better points return than three blanks.

"They were difficult matches but I thought there were positives we could take from the games," he said. "In the second half against Everton, we were by far the better team and had plenty of chances to score, while for long periods against United we were on top.

"We are still playing good football and I'm confident we will turn it around again very soon," added Jermain, who believes we shouldn't be concerning ourselves with what is happening to the teams around us and focusing on ourselves is all important.

"We've now got 10 huge league games in the run-in and we just have to pick up as many points as we can.

"Arsenal are just behind us but we don't need to worry about that. They may have scored a late winner against Newcastle the other day, but that doesn't matter. They are still behind us, we're in third place!

"I remember Floyd Mayweather saying that when he was at the top of his game, he didn't worry about those behind him, he just concentrated on himself and set the standard that others had to try to follow.

"That's what we need to do. The teams below are chasing us, but if we keep our focus on what we do and how we play, then whatever they do won't matter. When we finished fourth two years ago, Manchester City were chasing us down all the way, but we just kept winning our matches and in the end, there was nothing they could because it was in our own hands. I'm sure we'll do the same again this season."

HOSPITALITY NEWS

With Mike Rollo, Commercial Manager

Welcome to all our executive boxholders, executive lounge members and hospitality guests for this evening's FA Cup sixth round tie with Bolton Wanderers. This is the point in this famous competition when all supporters start dreaming of a trip to Wembley, not just for the semi final, which awaits today's winners, but also the Final itself. Following our fifth round replay victory over Stevenage we have a great opportunity of making an all important step towards FA Cup glory, which has been enjoyed by players and fans alike on eight occasions already in our glorious history. So let's get behind the Lilywhites this evening - come on you Spurs!

Man of the Match

Following our last match in the fifth round replay against Stevenage, it was Jermain Defoe who was voted as Man of the Match by Spurs Legend Alan Mullery, on behalf of the guests in the Oak Room. Jermain is pictured being presented with his prize by Alan, a member of our FA Cup winning team of 1967 and, of course, captain of our Football League Cup and UEFA Cup winning teams in 1971 and 1972 respectively.

Continuing our 2011-12 review of football throughout the continent, we assess the action from a cross-section of Europe's other leagues

BUNDESLIGA (AUSTRIA)

FC Salzburg may be sitting on the top of the Austrian Bundesliga, but it's by the thinnest of margins, as they share a points total of 38 with second placed Rapid Vienna and third placed Austria Vienna. Salzburg's goal difference is what isolates them at the summit and this was improved to 14 after a 3-1 victory over title rivals Rapid last weekend. It was a vital win for The Bulls, especially with Austria Vienna winning on the same day. Salzburg took the lead through a David Mendes da Silva spot kick, but Rapid levelled things up courtesy of a 74th-minute strike from skipper Steffen Hofmann. This tense encounter looked destined for a draw, but Jakob Jantscher popped up for the home side with three minutes remaining and a Markus Heikkinen own goal put the icing on the cake at the Red Bull Arena. Austria Vienna also won on home turf to make sure they stay hot on the heels of the top two, as they beat FC Trenkwalder Admira 2-1. Roman Kienast put the hosts in control, before Daniel Toth equalised for Admira. Alexander Gorgon then netted just after half time, in what turned out to be the match winner for the Austrian giants. This leaves Admira in fifth position, in what is one of the most delicately poised leagues in world football. They currently have 34 points, one shy of fourth placed SV Ried, who saw off bottom side Kapfenberg 3-0 to remain three points off the leading pack. Strum Graz sit in sixth place after a disappointing 1-0 home defeat to Wiener Neustadt, but are only five points off the top themselves, showing just how tight things are. As a result of Graz losing, Wacker Innsbruck moved within a point of the stuttering champions, after they picked up all three points away to Mattersburg, winning 1-0.

LA LIGA (SPAIN)

Cristiano Ronaldo scored twice as Real Madrid won their 11th consecutive La Liga match, 3-2 at Real Betis, a game that marked José Mourinho's 100th in charge of the famous Spanish club. Having fallen behind to Jorge Molina's ferocious finish in Seville, the league leaders equalised when Gonzalo Higuain ran on to Mesut Ozil's ball over the top and rifled beyond Fabri. Ronaldo's customary goal, his 31st in the Spanish top flight this season, put the visitors ahead after the break and, although Jefferson Montero equalised, the Portuguese striker struck again after Fabri had parried a Sergio Ramos header in the 73rd-minute. Madrid last failed to win a league game on December 10 when they lost 3-1 to Barcelona, who trimmed the capital club's lead back to 10 points after defeating Racing 2-0 the following day. Fresh from his five goals in the Champions League, Lionel Messi bagged both goals in the game to reach an incredible 50 goals in all competitions for the current campaign. Third-placed Valencia could only draw 2-2 with Mallorca, letting their two-goal

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: LIONEL MESSI

Is it possible for this little magician to get any better? Scorer of a record-breaking five strikes against Bayer Leverkusen, Messi continued his superb campaign with both efforts in Barcelona's win against Racing. The Argentina forward slid in a Cesc Fabregas pass on 29 minutes and added a penalty after the break to hit the 30-goal mark in the top flight this season and 50 in all competitions.

with a 1-0 win. Elsewhere, Catania made it five games unbeaten as they defeated Fiorentina courtesy of Francesco Lodi's 58th-minute penalty, while Siena triumphed 2-0 at 10-man Cesena thanks to second-half strikes from Franco Brienza and Erjon Bogdani.

leaving the Rossoblu in 17th, six points above the relegation zone. AC Milan stretched their lead at the top of Serie A to four points with a 2-0 defeat over Lecce, as closest title challengers Juventus drew 0-0 with Genoa. Antonio Nocerino opened the scoring on seven minutes following a neat move with Zlatan Ibrahimovic, before the Swedish international turned goalscorer, netting in the league for the 19th time this season. With four wins from their last five, the Rossoneri have taken the initiative from rivals Juventus, who endured their fourth consecutive draw.

Antonio Conte's side were unable to find an elusive goal at Genoa, but can count themselves unlucky after twice striking the woodwork through Simone Pepe and Mirko Vucinic in a frantic second half. Third-placed Lazio failed to take advantage of the Old Lady's plight, going down 3-1 at home to Bologna. The visitors surged into a two-goal lead inside 28 minutes through Daniele Portanova and Alessandro Diamanti, before matters got even worse for the hosts when Matuzalem was sent off. Despite pulling a goal back, Lazio were reduced to nine men following Álvaro Gonzalez's dismissal, and Rene Krhin made them pay by adding Bologna's third. There was another shock defeat for Udinese as Novara moved off the foot of the table lead slip as the visitors mustered a spirited response via Emilio Nsue (57 mins) and Victor Casadesus (66). After scoring the opening goal, Valencia had Tino Costa dismissed with six minutes remaining and now lie 16 points shy of Barca and an astonishing 47 goals behind in goal difference. Malaga replaced Levante in fourth thanks to a 1-0 home victory against one of their rivals for Spain's final Champions League place. Jose Rondon glanced in the winner after 51 minutes from Joaquin's free kick. Elsewhere, Espanyol registered a convincing 5-1 scoreline over Rayo Vallecano, Kalu Uche grabbing a hat-trick for the Catalan club, and Atletico Madrid beat Granada 2-0. Osasuna managed to climb up to sixth by defeating Manchester United's Europa League first leg conquerors, Athletic Bilbao, 2-1.

SERIE A TIM (ITALY)

The Premier League isn't the only one that brings us managerial dramas; Cagliari sacked coach Davide Ballardini after last week's 6-3 loss to Napoli, bringing back the 48-year-old's predecessor Massimo Ficcadenti for a second spell. Ballardini was only in charge for four months and this recent defeat was the club's third in a row,

CLUB CONNECTIONS

Andy Porter profiles the 13 players that have featured for both ourselves and the Trotters in the Football/Premier League since 1908.

Gordon Jones

Utility player Gordon Jones was the subject of a transfer between the two clubs in 1912, a £100 fee being paid to Wanderers for his services. Able to play in either the half back line or up front, he spent three seasons with Bolton before coming south.

Born at Birkenhead on February 1, 1889, Jones played in The Combination league for Birkenhead prior to joining Wanderers in 1909. He scored twice on his Football League debut against Notts County during January, 1910, playing at inside right. By the end of that season he had notched six goals in 17 appearances but with only five more senior games over the next two years was released in May, 1912. Ironically, his final game for Wanderers was during April, 1912, in a 1-0 defeat at White Hart Lane.

His single season here saw him play in seven League games plus three minor cup matches for our first XI. He also featured in 14 games for our South Eastern League reserve team, netting on his final appearance, a 3-0 home win over bottom of the table Tunbridge Wells Rangers.

Frank Drabble featured in goal for both clubs either side of the Great War. A schoolmaster by profession, he turned out for seven clubs in Football League action between 1909 and 1924.

Born at Southport on July 8, 1888, Drabble played for Blowick Wesleyans and Southport YMCA in the Southport & District League. He was spotted by us when keeping goal for Lancashire versus London at Park Royal during season 1908-09. Taken on as a trialist during July, 1909, he signed professional three months later.

His first game in our colours was for the reserve team against Hastings & St. Leonard's on September 4 in a South Eastern League fixture. He made four first team appearances; at Reading in a friendly match on September 29; at Preston on October 23 in a First Division game which was abandoned after 50 minutes due to rain; at home to Notts County in the top flight a week later; and in a 3-0 home win over Woolwich Arsenal on November 1 in the London Professional Football Charity Fund match. In addition, he played in 25 South Eastern League games, making his final appearance versus Chelsea on April 30, 1910.

Drabble went on to feature for Nottingham Forest (eight appearances), Burnley (two) and Bradford Park Avenue (32) in the Football League prior to the Great War and turned out for Fulham in wartime matches.

He was Bolton's regular goalkeeper during 1919-20 making 28 appearances and added one further game the following season before spending 1921-22 with Southport adding five games to his League tally. His final two games of Football League action were for Queens Park Rangers during March, 1924.

Frank Drabble passed away at Staines on July 29, 1964.

Fred Hinton served as understudy to Dick Pym for four years at Burnden Park, making 34 League appearances for Wanderers before joining us.

Born at Swindon, William Frederick Weston Hinton signed amateur forms for his local club before the war and was their regular custodian in the Southern League during season 1919-20. Signed by Bolton for a £50 fee, Fred made his Football League debut in a 3-2 win at Old Trafford on August 28, 1920, and went on to make 14 appearances that season. He added 19 more during 1921-22 and made a single appearance thereafter, coincidentally for our visit on September 29, 1923.

We paid Bolton a £600 fee for his transfer on June 1, 1924, and Fred was our only ever-present player during 1924-25. He played 57 League games for us plus seven in the FA Cup until being forced to retire through illness during 1927. Asked years later to pick his favourite game, he cited our cup replay win at Bolton in 1925.

He went on to run his own timber and box-making businesses back in Swindon before retiring to Branksome in Dorset.

Full back George Goldsmith was only with us for nine months and made a solitary League appearance against Derby County on September 29, 1934. He was brought in to understudy regular right back Bill Whatley but spent most of his time with our reserve team, playing 19 London Football Combination games.

Born at Loftus, he played for Bishop Auckland, Loftus Albion and Denaby Main prior to joining Hull City during June, 1928. He made his Football League debut at Southampton on December 29, 1928, and went on to play 171 league games for Hull, helping them to the Third Division North title during 1932-33.

He arrived here in June, 1934, and left for Bolton the following March in a £750 transfer. The two clubs traded places that summer as we were relegated and Bolton promoted. George made the last of his 19 league appearances for Bolton at Manchester City on March 21, 1936, and retired later that year.

George Hunt scored 125 goals in 185 league outings during his seven years with us. He became only the second Spur to break the 100 league goal barrier and his record stood for 25 years until surpassed by Bobby Smith. He currently stands fourth in our league goals list with Cliff Jones and Jimmy Greaves also ahead of him.

He turned out for Regent Street Congregationals in his native Barnsley and signed for Chesterfield during September, 1929. Having scored nine goals in 14 games we snapped him up during June, 1930, and he went on to lead the line in our 'Tottenham Greyhounds' team which won promotion in 1933 and came third the following season. George won three England caps facing Scotland, Italy and Switzerland during April and May, 1933. During his time with us he wrote a weekly football column in The Star newspaper.

George had a six month stint at Arsenal before moving on to Bolton during March, 1938. His peacetime tally for Wanderers was 24 goals in 45 games until joining Sheffield Wednesday in November, 1946. He returned to Burnden Park on retiring in May, 1948 and filled various backroom roles over the next 20 years, including coach, scout and assistant trainer.

Defender Don McAllister skippered Bolton to victory in the Lancashire Youth Cup Final as he made his way through the Burnden Park apprentice ranks. Turning professional during June, 1970, he helped them to the Third Division title in 1972-73 and played 156 league games, netting two goals, before coming here during February, 1975.

He scored 10 goals in 202 senior games for us over the next six years and also played Stateside in 1977 with Washington Diplomats. Don left to join Charlton during August, 1981, and later had playing spells with Tampa Bay Rowdies, Vitoria Setubal and Rochdale. He also had a stint as manager of Barnet from December, 1985, to May, 1986, having originally joined them as player/assistant manager.

Don worked in the sports finance business in London and switched to their Australian operation in Sydney back in 1991.

during February, 1974. Too young to sign professional, he played as an amateur and made his senior debut against Chelsea two months later as our first 16-year-old in League football, ending the season as a member of our FA Youth Cup winning team. Neil won Under 21 and Youth caps during his time with us to go with those won as a schoolboy.

An ever-present in our Second Division campaign of 1977-78, Neil scored three goals in 80 senior appearances before moving on to Bolton during November, 1978. His 15 month stint there yielded 35 League games before spells with Brighton, Leeds, Portsmouth and Manchester City. He rounded off his playing career with spells at Tranmere, Huddersfield, Darlington, Derry City, Ayr United and Witton Albion.

Coaching appointments followed with Manchester City and Portsmouth and he served Exeter City as head coach between October, 2002, and February, 2003. Neil had a spell as assistant manager at Weymouth before heading to the USA where he has specialised in youth football coaching, most recently with the Cobb Futbol Club.

Ian Moores played the last of over 200 Football League career matches for Bolton at Charlton during May, 1983. A striker, his two year spell with us during the 1970s yielded eight goals in 32 senior outings. Capped twice by England at Under-23 level during 1975, he faced Wales at Wrexham in January and Czechoslovakia at Trnava in October.

Born at Newcastle-under-Lyme on October 5, 1954, Ian Richard Moores attended Edward Orme Secondary School and represented Staffordshire county schools. He joined his boyhood idols Stoke City in 1970 as a left winger, switching to a central role whilst playing for the Stoke 'A' team.

He had scored 15 goals in 57 senior games for Stoke when arriving at Tottenham in August, 1976, for a reputed £75,000 fee. A loan spell with the Western Suburbs club, Sydney during the summer of 1977 preceded his move to Orient in October, 1978. A total of 31 goals in 132 games for the O's were followed by five in 30 for Bolton during season 1982-83. He also had a three match loan spell at Barnsley during February, 1983.

A five year stint in Cyprus with Apoel Nicosia saw him gain a cup winners medal in 1984 and a league championship medal two years later. On returning to England in 1988 he had trials with Port Vale and Newcastle Town before joining Southern League club Tamworth. He helped them to FA Vase honours in 1989, scoring in the replayed final.

Diagnosed with cancer, Ian Moores was admitted to a Stoke hospital where he passed away on January 12, 1998, aged 43.

Chris Fairclough was a dependable centre half who played over 500 League games during the 1980s and 1990s. His tally for us was five goals in 60 First Division games and for Wanderers eight goals in 90 games.

Forest in 1980 and joined us during July, 1987. He won 'B' and Under-21 caps during his time with us and moved on to Leeds in March, 1989, winning second and first division titles during his six years there. Chris joined Bolton in July, 1995, and helped them return to the top flight two years later. He ended his playing career with spells at Notts County and York before returning to Forest where he served on the coaching staff. He was in charge of their Under-18 side when we played there during August, 2008, but left three years later.

Gudni Bergsson was in the news recently having been stabbed twice in a leg whilst protecting a colleague at the Legal Support law firm in Reykjavik. He joined us from Valur during December, 1988, following a trial spell and made his Football League debut versus Luton Town on Boxing Day. Comfortable at centre back or full back, he was a non playing member of our 1991 Cup Final squad and returned home to continue his law studies in 1993 having scored two goals in 71 League games for us. We retained his registration although he was able to play for Valur and following a trial with Crystal Palace was snapped up by Bolton during March, 1995. He went on to feature in 270 league games for the Trotters, scoring 23 goals, until hanging up his boots in 2003. His tally of 80 Full caps for Iceland is third in their all time list. The first of his 30 caps as a Spur, on May 19, 1989, saw him face an England 'B' team which included club colleagues Gary Mabbutt, Paul Stewart and Paul Gascoigne.

Our strikers' coach Les Ferdinand scored for and against both clubs in the Football League Cup. He notched a hat-trick in our 6-0 win here on December 11, 2001, and netted one of the goals against us when we won 4-3 after extra time at the Reebok Stadium on October 27, 2004.

A League Cup winner with us in 1999, Les gained 17 Full caps for England during a distinguished career that saw 184 goals scored in 443 league appearances. That tally included 33 goals in 118 Premier League games for us plus one goal in 12 games for Bolton.

Polish international striker Grzegorz Rasiak was signed from Derby County at the end of August, 2005, and featured in eight Premier League games during his stay with us. He joined Southampton five months later and had a seven match loan spell at the Reebok four years ago, featuring in the game here on April 26, 2008. Since then he has turned out for Watford, Reading and Cypriot club AEL. Grzegorz returned to Poland last year and is currently with Jagiellonia, having previously played at senior level domestically for GKS Belchatow, Odra Wodzislaw and Groclin Dyskobolia Grodzisk.

Sean Davis is currently on loan at Bristol City following a lengthy injury lay off since joining Bolton from Portsmouth during 2009. He progressed through the Fulham youth ranks to gain 12 England Under-21 caps and arrived here during July, 2004. He made 15 League appearances for us before moving on to Portsmouth and has played three top flight games during his time at the Reebok.

Two other international players to feature for both clubs in the recent past are Ian Walker and Quinton Fortune. Ian played 259 League games for us between 1991 and 2001 and spent four seasons with Bolton. His only senior action there saw him feature in eight cup matches between September, 2005 and January, 2007, three each in the UEFA and Football League Cups and two in the FA Cup. Quinton, meanwhile, was on our books as a schoolboy between October, 1991 and May, 1994. He scored six goals in 41 games for our youth and reserve teams and made six Premier League appearances for Bolton during 2006.

"I ALWAYS RECALL THERE WAS PRE-MATCH ENTERTAINMENT AND A BRASS BAND AT BOLTON, WHENEVER I HEAR A BRASS BAND PLAY I ALWAYS THINK OF BURNDEN PARK, RAIN, TOMMY BANKS, ROY HARTLE AND GRAVEL RASH. THAT BRINGS IT BACK BIG-TIME."

Think of Bolton and the FA Cup, and two finals of the 1950s are legend in the world's most famous competition.

The first was the 'Matthews Final' of 1953, where Stan Mortensen scored a hat-trick and winger Sir Stanley sparked a Blackpool recovery from 3-1 down to win 4-3.

On target for Bolton that day was the late, great Nat Lofthouse OBE, who had to wait another six years for his winner's medal and scored one of Wembley's most infamous goals as Bolton beat Manchester United 2-0 in 1958.

Lofthouse scored twice on May 3, 1958, and his second came when he shoulder-charged United goalkeeper Harry Gregg, who had the ball in his arms at the time, over the line.

Barely any contact would lead to a foul awarded to the goalkeeper in football today, but back then, the goal - albeit controversially - was awarded and Lofthouse lifted the trophy.

Lofthouse, who sadly passed away last January, was one of the giants of the English game.

'The Lion of Vienna' - a nickname he earned after bravely scoring a goal in England's 3-2 win in Austria in 1952 - was a one-club man, playing over 450 games for Bolton and scoring over 250 goals between 1946-60.

"He was the Bobby Smith of his generation, if you like," said our Double-winning legend Cliff Jones, comparing Lofthouse to our great striker and his team-mate in that successful side.

"He was tough, strong and he could really play. Nat will always be remembered for that England match against Austria, 'the Lion of Vienna'. That summed him up perfectly.

"He lived for Bolton, it was his only

CLIFF'S BOLTON MEMORIES

Our Double-winning winger Cliff Jones had some great tussles with the famous Bolton Wanderers sides of the 1950s - and probably still has the scars to prove it! Paul Miles caught up with the Spurs legend to reminisce.

club and he was a real legend, Nat. He was certainly a player no-one relished playing against."

In fact, it appears that no-one relished playing that Bolton side of the late 1950s.

"They had a reputation and no-one liked going to Burnden Park, they were a tough-tackling team," recalled Cliff, who scored 159 goals for us in 379 appearances between 1958-68.

"My memories are of Tommy Banks, the full-back, and Roy Hartle, who didn't take any prisoners.

"All wingers would come back from Burnden Park with 'gravel rash' because around the outside of the pitches there was always a track and wingers would invariably end up sliding across it!

"Bolton was an intimidating place to go and most forwards of that generation who played at Burnden Park will remember the defence of Eddie Hopkinson in goal, Hartle, Banks, Derek Hennin, John Higgins and Bryan Edwards.

"I remember them all and wingers of that day will definitely remember going up there. They were a very good side.

"I always recall there was pre-match entertainment and a brass band at Bolton, whenever I hear a brass band play I always think of Burnden Park, rain, Tommy Banks, Roy Hartle and gravel rash. That brings it back big-time."

A flying winger and Welsh legend, Cliff made it to three FA Cup Finals in his years at Spurs, playing key roles in the Double year of 1961 and again in 1962. He was also an unused substitute as we beat Chelsea in 1967.

Still at the Lane for every home game in his role as a matchday host in the Legends Lounge, Cliff, who turned 77 last month, admits the excitement of the FA Cup will still loom large as he walks into the stadium for this evening's quarter-final.

"As a young kid growing up, the FA Cup was the big thing, and it meant everything," he said.

"To achieve something like getting to the FA Cup Final at Wembley was something very, very special. It was what every young boy of my generation would have dreamed about.

"This game will be brilliant. It will be difficult against Bolton, but we should have the class to come through."

QUARTER-FINAL DELIGHT

Andy Greeves looks back at selection of some of our most memorable FA Cup quarter-final ties.

FA Cup Quarter-Final Replay

1960-61 March 8, 1961

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR 5
SUNDERLAND 0

It was Sunderland - then of the old Second Division - who proved to be one of our most difficult opponents en route to our Double success of 1960-61.

On March 4, 1961, a full house at their old Roker Park ground celebrated as Willie McPheat cancelled out our opener from Cliff Jones, forcing a replay at White Hart Lane. In truth, Sunderland had enough chances to have won that game on Wearside, cheered on by the famous 'Roker Roar'.

It was quite a different story in North London just four days later though. Les Allen gave us the lead on 27 minutes and Bobby Smith was on hand to make it 2-0 a few minutes later. Terry Dyson added a third before half time to all but put the tie beyond Sunderland.

A Dyson header on 65 minutes was followed by a Dave Mackay shot five minutes later to give us a 5-0 victory and progression to a semi-final showdown with Burnley at Villa Park.

Our quest to retain the FA Cup we had won in 1961 had seen us triumph against the likes of Birmingham City, Plymouth Argyle and West Bromwich Albion during the 1961-62 season prior to a quarter-final against Aston Villa.

Bill Nicholson's men took charge early on against Villa on a slippery White Hart Lane pitch. As the rain fell constantly throughout the first half, so too did chances for the home side with Terry Medwin and Jimmy Greaves both having efforts that hit the post in the opening exchanges.

Skipper Danny Blanchflower opened the scoring on 47 minutes and Cliff Jones was on hand a minute later to head home a Greaves cross to make it 2-0.

We beat Manchester United in the FA Cup semi-final at Hillsborough and then overcame Burnley at the old Wembley Stadium on May 5, 1962, to record our fourth FA Cup triumph and our second success in the competition in as many years.

On paper, a visit from Exeter City was the easiest tie we could have hoped for in the FA Cup quarter-finals in 1981, but in a competition famed for its acts of giant killing, our players were taking nothing for granted.

The Devon side arrived at White Hart Lane half way up the old Third Division table at the time and gave a good account of themselves on the day. With building work on the West Stand taking place, a reduced capacity crowd of 40,629 were present to watch a largely even contest.

It took two moments of Glenn Hoddle magic to settle the tie in our favour. First, his pin-point cross enabled Graham Roberts to score his first goal in our colours on 62 minutes while Hoddle's free-kick on 74 minutes was dropped by Exeter keeper Len Bond and Paul Miller was on hand to make it 2-0.

Our sixth FA Cup victory was secured at the end of the season with victory against Manchester City in the FA Cup Final Replay on May 14, 1981.

FA Cup Quarter-Final

1992-93 March 7, 1993

MANCHESTER CITY 2 TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR 4

Mike Sheron gave Manchester City a 10th minute lead from a Terry Phelan cross in this pulsating Sixth Round tie in 1993.

Joy was to be short lived for the Maine Road faithful however, with a Nayim drive on 25 minutes bringing the equaliser. Just two minutes before the break, Justin Edinburgh's through ball allowed Steve Sedgley to advance into the City penalty area and put us in front.

Nayim made it 3-1 three minutes into the second half, capitalising on a Teddy Sheringham shot which had cannoned back off the post. The Moroccan midfielder then completed his hat-trick on 85 minutes, placing his effort beyond the reach of Tony Coton. Mike Phelan scored a consolation for Manchester City two minutes from time.

In a game that had it all, Andy Turner's disallowed 'goal' and Sheringham's penalty miss mattered not as we went through to a Wembley semi-final showdown with rivals Arsenal.

FA Cup Quarter-Final

2000-01 March 11, 2001

WEST HAM UNITED 2 TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR 3

We made it to our fifth FA Cup semi-final in 10 years with a hard-fought victory at Upton Park in 2001.

In arguably his best game in our colours, Ukrainian striker Sergei Rebrov gave us the lead on 32 minutes, volleying in from Steffen Freund's long throw. Veteran defender Stuart Pearce fired in an equaliser for West Ham, with a well struck free-kick just before half time in this end-to-end London derby.

Rebrov's second of the afternoon on 57 minutes swung the tie back in our favour and when Gary Doherty headed us 3-1 in front five minutes later, progress to the last four looked secured. West Ham reduced the deficit on 72 minutes though through substitute Svetoslav Todorov to keep the tie alive, but our players held their nerve to reach the semis – and yet another match-up with Arsenal.

Our victory was in no small part thanks to our goalkeeper Neil Sullivan, who pulled off a string of fantastic saves which saw him given the Man of the Match award by Sky Sports.

Teams

West Ham United: Hislop, Dailly, Stimac, S. Pearce, Schemmel (Todorov), Lampard, Carrick, Cole, Winterburn, Kanoute, Di Canio

Spurs: Sullivan, Young, Perry, Campbell, Doherty, Clemence, Freund, King, Iversen, Rebrov, Ferdinand (Korsten)

FERDINAND'S FINALE...

Les Ferdinand scored the last goal of his glorious Premier League career against Manchester United – and it may surprise people to know that it came wearing the colours of today's opponents Bolton Wanderers.

Our current strikers' coach joined the Trotters in the 2004-05 season after enjoying Premier League football with QPR, Newcastle United, West Ham United, Leicester City and ourselves of course.

He then scored what looked like a certain winner late on against Manchester United only for Sir Alex Ferguson's men to find an equaliser in added time. The goal was his 149th and final Premier League strike and he became the first player to score for six different clubs in the division in the process.

"I'd just come off the back of a season at Leicester and I was looking to retire but Sam (Allardyce) talked me out of it and said he felt I still had a few goals left in me," recalled Les at Spurs Lodge this week.

"I remember the goal well. We got a free-kick on the half-way line, I ran off the shoulder of the last defender, Jay Jay Okocha played the ball in, the keeper came out, I clattered into him – you don't see that much these days – there was a bit of a melee, the ball broke loose and I had a six-yard tap-in!"

Bolton actually play another part in Les's goalscoring history as he scored his final goal against Premier League opposition for them in the League Cup in October, 2004.

Need we say who that was against? Us, of course! "Yes, I remember that one as well," smiled Les. Thankfully we had the last laugh with a 4-3 win in extra time.

Les won the League Cup when we beat Leicester in 1999 but never got to an FA Cup Final in his distinguished career. He reached the semi-finals with us in 2001, when we lost out to Arsenal at Old Trafford.

"It doesn't get any better than this, a quarter-final at White Hart Lane," added Les, who is sixth-equal with Michael Owen in the Premier League's all-time goalscoring list.

"I was fortunate enough to play in the semi-final for Spurs, but a quarter-final, knowing if you win you are then one stop away from the final, is special. The lads will be up for it.

"We've had a sticky run of results but that was going to happen at some stage of the season, it's very rare you go through a season without losing a couple of games on the bounce.

"Hopefully we'll get over it, get back to winning ways and put in a performance against Bolton, score some goals and bring some confidence back."

Meanwhile, Les doesn't subscribe to the theory that Bolton won't take this tie seriously as they fight for Premier League survival.

"I see them taking every game seriously, they are trying to get into the winning habit, while we're trying to get back into it," he added.

"Once you've won one game, you don't then want to go easy in the FA Cup and not put a strong side out. What you are trying to do is gain momentum, so I'm expecting a tough game."

We were sorry to hear of the passing of Marjorie Housden of Carshalton, who passed away recently, aged 99. She was the last surviving offspring of Bobby and Ethel Buckle, who had eight children. Bobby was one of our founder members and our first captain back in 1882, at the age of 13. He later served on our committee and board of directors. We extend our condolences to Majorie's family and friends at this sad time.

SPURS AND HARINGEY SHED GO THE EXTRA MILE FOR SPORT RELIEF

A group of 30 children with mixed abilities from local inclusive performing arts charity Haringey Shed visited White Hart Lane to show their support for this year's Sport Relief.

The children walked a mile around the stadium with their patron, BAFTA nominated actress Sue Johnston and our Brazilian midfielder Sandro.

Sue Johnston said: "It's been a wonderful afternoon and it's great to see the children out there raising awareness for such a great cause. I hope that their participation will encourage everyone to go the extra mile for Sport Relief."

Sandro added: "The children involved had so much energy, they did really well and it was sometimes hard to keep up with them - I only managed three laps because I have to conserve my energy for the weekend's game! It's really important for kids to have the chance to come to our stadium and, as players, we know we have an important role to play in helping inspire them to achieve."

This year, over one million people are expected to pull up their Sport Relief Socks and take part in the Sainsbury's Sport Relief Mile to raise vital funds for vulnerable people across the UK and the world's poorest countries. The London Mile will be taking place down London's most famous road, the Mall, and there is still time to enter and bag a space at the start line. # SAFETY AT THE LANE

GROUND REGULATION

Supporters please be aware that Ground Regulation point 13 states that racial, homophobic, anti-semitic or discriminatory abuse, chanting or harassment is strictly forbidden and will result in arrest and/or ejection from the ground.

STANDING

The Club would like to reiterate its policy with regards to standing during football matches played at White Hart Lane and ask for the fans to co-operate with the Stewards on matchdays. We naturally recognise that the problem does not exist throughout the Stadium, but where and when it does occur, it affects a number of fans who have been unable to view the pitch on occasions and, due to this, we receive a number of complaints each season. As such, we need to deal with the problem as best we can, but we cannot do this without your support. Therefore, we would ask you to consider the fans behind you, the elderly or the young, those in the Disabled Section and those who cannot stand for prolonged periods of time.

We are aware that football can be a passionate and emotive game and we also know that fans will stand periodically through the match. The issue relates to fans that persistently stand during games and continually work against instructions and requests from stewards.

Your support of the team has been invaluable over recent years and therefore, the Club is unhappy at having to eject and ban fans for this offence, but we will continue to do so if the situation presents itself again this season. Ejection from the Stadium carries a minimum three match ban, with no refund on Season Tickets.

The Club is monitored on a regular basis by the Local Authority, who issue the Safety Certificate, and the Football Licensing Authority and whilst they are happy with the way we deal with a number of issues, they are continually looking at the standing problem and solutions to resolve it.

The ruling is the same as at all other Premier League Clubs and those that are all seater stadiums in other Leagues. It has been noticeable that some Clubs have had their capacities reduced and this is not something we wish to see at White Hart Lane. Please help us to work with the Authorities and recognise that standing is an issue that needs to be dealt with for the benefit of everyone.

Please listen to what the Stewards say and sit down when requested to do so, allowing everyone to enjoy the match in the unique atmosphere here at White Hart Lane, created by Spurs fans.

SPURS AGAINST DISCRIMINATION

We do not tolerate discrimination of any sort at the Club, on the pitch or in the stands. If you experience any form of discrimination, help us to eliminate it from football by reporting it.

Text us on 07537 404821 or email us at safety@tottenhamhotspur.com - we will treat your correspondence in strictest confidence. Your co-operation in helping to make White Hart Lane a safe and enjoyable environment for everyone is greatly appreciated.

EVACUATION PROCEDURE

In the event of an emergency at Tottenham Hotspur Football Club, spectators should remain in their positions and listen carefully to the loud speaker announcements that will be made.

The announcements may direct spectators in a specified area of the ground to evacuation points which may be exit gates or emergency exits leading on to the pitch. Our PA system operates on a 'zoned' basis so do not worry if you cannot hear certain broadcasts too clearly. In such cases, the information will not appertain to your section of the stadium.

Stewards, officials and police officers will direct spectators to the relevant points.

If spectators are requested to vacate a specified area, they are asked to do so calmly and quickly to assist with a safe evacuation.

All supporters should then make their way towards the east side of the stadium using Park Lane and Worcester Avenue, into Northumberland Park, avoiding the High Road and the front of the stadium.

TEXTING SERVICE - PLEASE NOTE OUR NEW NUMBER - 07537 404821

The Texting Service is unique at White Hart Lane and has been used to good effect in past seasons in enabling us to ban people for committing offences on matchdays.

Foul, abusive and racist language will not be tolerated in this stadium, but should you experience any of these and wish to report it, you can do so by texting the Control Room on the above number. You do not have to put up with mindless supporters who are intent on ruining your day with us, so use the system, report the individuals and let us take it from there. For our staff, it is better to monitor the problem as it is happening, we can view the area of concern on CCTV and deal with everything quickly. Help us to make White Hart Lane a safe and welcoming environment for everyone.

If you have information about any persons involved in football hooliganism, please call the National Criminal Intelligence Service - Football Unit on 0800 515495. Your call will be treated in the strictest confidence. This ground is equipped with CCTV with the help of a grant from the football trust.

LEDLEY KING

Time to find out a little bit more about the sporting interests and achievements of our players and coaches, from their early days right through to the present time. Answering the questions this week is Ledley King

GROWING UP

What are your first memories of kicking a ball?

I'm not sure how old I was but remember kicking a ball around in the house, regularly breaking my mum's ornaments and vases and trying to put them back without her noticing!

What sports did you play as a youngster?

Football was always the main one but at school I also did a bit of athletics and basketball.

What was the name of your first youth football team?

Senrab was the first team I played for and I was with them for a few years. We wore a red and black striped kit, similar to AC Milan.

VENUES

At which ground did you play your first professional match?

I made my Spurs debut against Liverpool at Anfield, a special stadium which still holds a lot of memories for me and obviously it was a very proud moment in my career.

What was the last arena you went to watch a sporting event at?

It would have been the MEN Arena in

"I MADE MY SPURS DEBUT AGAINST LIVERPOOL AT ANFIELD, A SPECIAL STADIUM WHICH STILL HOLDS A LOT OF MEMORIES FOR ME AND OBVIOUSLY IT WAS A VERY PROUD MOMENT IN MY CAREER"

Manchester to watch the David Haye v Audley Harrison fight.

Which football stadium would you most like to play at, that you haven't already appeared in?
I think I would say the Nou Camp, it's a fantastic stadium. I watch a lot of Barcelona on TV and have actually been to the stadium during a holiday to the city. I always thought I wouldn't do the tour, that I would wait until I've played there, but I couldn't resist it!

What's the best sporting arena you've been at, either as a player or spectator?
For me it has to be Wembley

Stadium. It holds such a special place in English football and it's a magical venue in which to play. Footballers across the world want to play there and I've been fortunate to do so a few times, including two cup finals with Spurs and the very first international at the new stadium, when England played Brazil.

SPORTING HEROES

As a youngster, which footballer did you look up to the most?
There were a few to be honest. As a kid I always enjoyed watching forwards and the likes of Romario, Ronaldo and Marco van Basten were among the best at that time.

Aside from football, which current sports person do you enjoy watching perform?
I enjoy watching basketball and boxing, so at the moment it would be people like LeBron James, Kobe Bryant and Floyd Mayweather.

Who would you say is your all-time sporting hero?
I don't think there has ever been someone who I have really regarded as a hero, but the one sportsman I used to watch a lot of when I was a teenager would have been Ronaldo. He was in his prime, a top class player and fantastic goalscorer.

A QUESTION OF SPORT

If you could spend the day as another sports person, who would it be and why?

Probably one of the greats such as Michael Jordan or Muhammad Ali... and Mike Tyson would be interesting! Just to see what makes them tick, what motivated them to be the very best of the best.

OLYMPIC MEMORIES

Which was the first Olympics you remember watching?

I vaguely remember Carl Lewis competing, but the first Games I really remember were the 1996 Atlanta Olympics, when Michael Jordan won the 200m and 400m wearing those famous gold trainers.

What one Olympics moment stands out for you?

Johnson's world record run in the 200m in Atlanta was certainly memorable, as was Usain Bolt's wins last time out in Beijing just for the sheer ease at which he broke those two world records in the 100m and 200m.

Who has been your favourite Olympian down the years?

The two I've just mentioned, Michael Johnson and Usain Bolt, both top sprinters.

Which one Olympic event would you most like to compete in?

For the glamour and excitement, it would have to be the 100m final. It's the most prestigious event at the entire Games and everyone wants to be able to say they are the fastest in the world.

Will you be attending the London 2012 games, if so which events?

I hope to, I know Phillips Idowu quite well so I'd like to be there supporting him.

SPORTING PROWESS

What other sports did you enjoy playing before becoming a footballer?

To be honest, I didn't enjoy any other sports other than football, because from a very early age, all I ever wanted to do was play football.

What was the last sport you played, aside from football?

Every now and then, myself and some friends get together and we have a pool competition which is always good fun.

"FOOTBALLERS ACROSS THE WORLD WANT TO PLAY THERE AND I'VE BEEN FORTUNATE TO DO SO A FEW TIMES, INCLUDING TWO CUP FINALS WITH SPURS AND THE VERY FIRST INTERNATIONAL AT THE NEW STADIUM, WHEN ENGLAND PLAYED BRAZIL"

If you could, which one sport would you most like to try that you've never done before?

I'm not a big fan of Formula One, but I have to say I wouldn't mind having a go in one of those cars. I have a lot of admiration for the skills of those drivers and the dangers they face every time they go out onto the track. It must be an amazing thrill to race such powerful cars.

What's your favourite games console sports game?

Although I'm not big on computers, I got into the Tiger Woods golf game on the PS3 recently and have enjoyed a few games with some mates. That surprised me a bit, as I don't play golf!
